Harp. Works has been set up with a bursary grant from the United Kingdom Harp Association and will always be a free to use resource for all harpists. Income derived from advertising on this website will be used for maintenance, administration and any profit derived from advertising will be invested into the development of this website.

Harp. Works appreciates the support that Harp Associations gives to their members. Membership of a Harp Association helps to develop and foster friendships and collaborations between harpists, which in turn benefits the wider harp community. Therefore, Harp. Works reserves the right to give preferential advertising rates to members of all such organisations.

Harp Associations are generally considered to be those listed as such by the World Harp Congress.
